

Orthodox Pilgrimage to the Saints of Barking

Sixth annual pilgrimage to Barking Abbey and its Saints

Saturday 16 May 2015

12:30—16:30

Barking Abbey, by St Margaret of Antioch Church
The Broadway, Barking, IG11 8AS

Bring your own lunch; services inside the Church if wet

Talk by Fr Philip Hall of the Parish of All Saints of Lincolnshire

Please register attendance with

BarkingOrthodoxPilgrimage@yahoo.co.uk

If you would like to join in additional prayers and a short walk (approx. 1 hour) , please also register with the email address above. The group will meet at Ilford Hospital Chapel at 10:00. The Chapel was founded by Barking Abbey as a hospice in the 12th century
48 Ilford Hill, Ilford, IG1 2AT

All welcome!

TRAVEL

Barking: mainline railway (C2C) and London Underground (District, Hammersmith & City, Overground)

Local buses: 5, 62, 169, 238, 287, 366, 368, 387, EL1, EL2

Some parking at St Margaret's, please share cars where possible.

Ilford Hospital Chapel: Closest stations Ilford (mainline), Gants Hill (Central) or Barking (see above).

